

Epäsuora esitys Harj 14 - 25 (s. 151 - 158)

14 p. 151

1. My neighbour said (that) he had the perfect daughter.
2. He told me (that) she didn't smoke.
3. He also added (that) she never drank beer.
4. He told me (that) she had never stayed out late at weekends.
5. He boasted (that) she was always at home.
6. I exclaimed (that) he had to be kidding.
7. I praised him saying (that) he had really brought up the perfect daughter.
8. He concluded by saying (that) she would be six months soon.

15 p. 151

1. The director complained (that) he/she was hungry.
2. The director added (that) they were all starving.
3. The producer admitted (that) he/she didn't like that/the cookery show.
4. The prop stylist stated (that) they/you couldn't expect good food there.
5. The photographer said (that) they would ask catering to take care of them.
6. The prop stylist told me (that) I wasn't a great cook.
7. The location scout added (that) he/she had never seen such a helpless case.
8. The wardrobe stylist commented (that) I couldn't even boil water.
9. The producer shouted (that) he/she was going to suggest that they change chefs the next/following day.
10. The photographer said (that) I might not be too pleased with that scenario.
11. The makeup artist told me (that) I didn't have to feel awful.
12. I reminded the crew (that) I (had) only started on that show the day before / the previous day.
13. I promised the crew (that) they would all get better free food the next/following day.
14. I pointed out (that) their expectations were too high and their stomachs too big.
15. I promised the crew (that) they were all going to have a slap-up meal with their new star chef there on set.
16. I claimed (that) they might not be as unhappy with my cooking the next/following day.

15 p. 151 SELKOKIELINEN VERSIO HE SAID.../ I SAID ...

1. He said he/she was hungry.
2. He said they were all starving.
3. He said he/she didn't like that/the cookery show.
4. He said they/you couldn't expect good food there.
5. He said they would ask catering to take care of them.
6. He said I wasn't a great cook.
7. He said he/she had never seen such a helpless case.
8. He said I couldn't even boil water.
9. He said he/she was going to suggest that they change chefs the next/following day.
10. He said I might not be too pleased with that scenario.
11. He said I didn't have to feel awful.
12. I said I (had) only started on that show the day before / the previous day.
13. I said they would all get better free food the next/following day.
14. I said) their expectations were too high and their stomachs too big.
15. I said they were all going to have a slap-up meal with their new star chef there on set.
16. I said they might not be as unhappy with my cooking the next/following day.

Homework 17 p. 153

1. Grandma, it says here in the paper (that) the new Prime Minister is proud of his government. (Huom: Nykyajan raportointi: aikamuoto ei muutu)
2. Your grandson said (that) the unemployment rate had/has gone down.
3. Your grandson told you (that) Shark Tank wouldn't be on the next/following day.
4. It says here in the paper (that) the new Miss Finland doesn't like ice-hockey players.
5. Your grandson said (that) the local fire brigade rescued/ had rescued a cat from a tree the previous day / the day before.
6. Your grandson said (that) there was a huge sand storm on Boa Vista and the tourists were trapped.
7. Your grandson told you (that) the price of ice-cream had fallen that week.
8. Your grandson said (that) spring fashion wasn't/isn't going to be all about pastels and floral prints.

Homework 17 p. 153 SELKOKIELINEN VERSIO, HE SAID ... / HE SAYS ...

1. He says the new Prime Minister is proud of his government. (Huom: Nykyajan raportointi: aikamuoto ei muutu)
2. He said the unemployment rate had gone down.
3. He said Shark Tank wouldn't be on the next/following day.
4. He says the new Miss Finland doesn't like ice-hockey players.
5. He said the local fire brigade rescued/ had rescued a cat from a tree the previous day / the day before.
6. He said there was a huge sand storm on Boa Vista and the tourists were trapped.
7. He said the price of ice-cream had fallen that week.
8. He said spring fashion wasn't/isn't going to be all about pastels and floral prints.

18 p. 155

1. I'd like to know what the term of this loan is.
2. Can you tell me what the interest rate is?
3. I'm wondering if/whether the rate is fixed or adjustable.
4. Do you happen to know when the interest rate can be adjusted?
5. I'd like to know how much my monthly payment will be.
6. Have you got any idea how the interest rate will be calculated?
7. I'm not sure if/whether the amount I owe is going to increase over time.
8. Tell me what the qualifications for the loan are.
9. I'd like to know why you recommend this loan for me.
10. I'm wondering if/whether there are other loans that also meet my needs.
11. I can't remember if/whether you said that I would have to make a decision soon.
12. I'm not sure if/whether the loan has to be paid back.

19 p. 155

1. First the interviewers asked me if/whether I could tell them a little about myself.
2. Then they wanted to know how I had heard about the vacancy.
3. They also asked me why I wanted that job.
4. They were wondering why they should hire me.

5. I had to tell them what my greatest strengths are/were.
6. Then they needed to know what I consider/considered my weaknesses.
7. They inquired where I saw myself in five years.
8. They wondered what my dream job is/was.
9. They asked me why I was leaving my current job.
10. They wondered how I had dealt with stressful situations in the past.
11. They wanted to know what I like/liked to do in my free time.
12. They asked me if/whether I had any questions for them.

20 Suggested p. 156

1. Susan Elbow was asked what the characteristics of a successful diplomat are.
2. She was asked what things about being a diplomat are challenging or maybe difficult. / She was asked if anything was challenging or maybe difficult about being a diplomat.
3. She was asked where she had worked during her career.
4. She was asked who she is a godmother to. / She was asked if she was a godmother to anybody.
5. She was asked what some of the highlights or really memorable events of her career are. / She was asked if there had been any highlights or really memorable events during her career.
6. She was asked what she would say to a Finnish high school student thinking of working for a foreign service. / She was asked if she would like to say anything to a Finnish high school student thinking of working for a foreign service.
7. She was asked what some of the biggest social issues are that she had seen either globally or more regionally. / She was asked if she had seen any social issues that are typical globally or more regionally.

Homework 22 p. 156

1. I don't remember what happened at the end of the party.
2. Everybody asked me why I had been dancing / was dancing on the table.
3. Our neighbours want to know when you're going to return their cat and dog.
4. Why haven't you told me what I did?
5. I'd like to know if/whether I have to apologize to everybody.
6. I'm not sure if/whether my friends are still talking to me.
7. Did you ask James if/whether he remembers what happened?
8. I'm wondering / I wonder why everything is such a big mystery.

23 p. 157

1. He told me to do my homework.
 2. He told me not to start a fight I couldn't win.
 3. He told me to expect complications.
 4. He told me to accept my dark side.
 5. He told me not to act unnaturally.
 6. He told me to understand how the system works/worked.
 7. He told me to believe in the system.
 8. He told me not to think any plan is/was foolproof.
 9. He told me never to work alone.
 10. He told me not to forget to wear a pair of pantyhose over my head.
- A retired bank robber was giving you advice. Not that you would ever rob a bank, would you?

Homework 25 p. 158

1. She told us not to let the kids stay up late.
2. She told us to give them milk and cookies.
3. She told us never to turn the computer on for them.
4. She told us to play board games instead.
5. She told us not to leave them alone with the cat.
6. She told us not to leave the door unlocked.