1. Bond has been away for a while on a mission and returns to the headquarters of Her Majesty's Secret Service. He flirts with Miss Money Penny, as usual. M wants to see Bond about a new mission. He has to find an international jewel smuggler Dixie Drex who is believed to live in Rio de Janeiro.
2. Bond goes to the airport to make a reservation on a flight to Rio. The assistant at the desk informs him of the various flights. Bond asks about the services available in the first class.
3. Having arrived in Rio, Bond orders a taxi to take him to his hotel. First everything goes smoothly but then Bond realizes that the taxi driver is taking him to some unknown place. What happens next?
4. Bond, having been unconscious for some time, wakes up in a damp cellar. A crook comes to the room, asking questions about who Bond is and what he is doing in Brazil. Bond pretends to be Mr William Smith, an international businessman, who has come to Rio to market his products. Decide what they are. Bond thinks of a clever way to get past the villain and escapes.
5. Bond goes to a shop in Rio to get information about Drex. He knows there is a secret passageway leading to Drex's hideout at the back of the shop. Bond has to make some excuse to get past the shop assistant who tries her best to resist him politely.

8. The ship is on fire. Drex is still loose somewhere on the ship. Bond tries to persuade Galore to leave Drex and escape with him. Galore says Drex has always been good to her and she doesn't want to leave him. Suddenly Drex comes to sight. What happens next?
9. Drex is dead. Bond and Galore are floating on a life raft while the ship is sinking. Galore starts planning a common future for her and Bond. That sounds too serious for Bond who wouldn't mind spending a few days with Galore, though. What do they decide to do?
