

A Work with a partner. Each of you choose five words from the list and spell them to your partner who will write the words down. Check your partner's words and make sure they are spelled correctly. 155

B With your partner, take turns reading the sentences out loud and replacing the word whatchamacallit with a suitable word from the box.

cash	finance
credit card	interest
demand	invoice
deposit	lend
discount	mortgage
due date	owe
entrepreneur	sale
exports

1. Is today the sixteenth? Oh no, I missed the whatchamacallit on this whatchamacallit and now I'll have to pay it with a 7.6% penalty whatchamacallit!
2. Excuse me, is this dress on whatchamacallit? This price is a bit high for my wallet but if I can get a small whatchamacallit, I'll buy it!
3. I just came from the bank where I paid a whatchamacallit on my house. I'm going to have a 30-year whatchamacallit like a proper adult!
4. I'm afraid we can't whatchamacallit your project. There is just no whatchamacallit for this kind of a product at the moment, and we feel that we would not get our money back.
5. Did you know that one of Finland's main whatchamacallits is refined petroleum? I didn't.
6. It says in the paper that the young whatchamacallit of the year is a 24-year-old man who sells used cars online.
7. Could you whatchamacallit me a few euros? I know I already whatchamacallit you some money, but I'll pay it all back at the same time then.
8. Somebody stole my purse while I was on holiday. My whatchamacallit was in there, and I had to call and cancel it. Luckily, I had some whatchamacallit at the hotel, so I was okay for the rest of the holiday.

C Work with a partner and take turns explaining the difference between these words.

1. loan – mortgage
2. lend – borrow
3. boom – slump
4. loss – profit
5. consumer – consumption
6. discount – interest
7. loan – payday loan
8. economic – economical
9. cash – currency
10. export – import