

Kaksiosaisia sanontoja ja fraaseja enkussa (Lähde: Chat GPT)

1. Alive and kicking: - Healthy and active.
2. Back and forth: - To move in both directions repeatedly.
3. Bells and whistles: - Additional features or decorations that are not essential.
4. Black and white: - Clearly defined, with no room for interpretation.
5. Bread and butter: - A person's primary source of income or livelihood.
6. By and large: - Generally or for the most part.

7. Chalk and cheese: - Completely different from each other.
8. Cut and dried: - Something already decided or settled.
9. Down and out: - In a state of poverty or destitution.
10. Fair and square: - Just and honest, without cheating.
11. Flesh and blood: - Close relatives or family members.
12. Hale and hearty: - In good health and robust condition.
13. High and dry: - Left in a difficult or abandoned situation.
14. Hit and miss: - Inconsistent or unpredictable.
15. Hustle and bustle: - Noisy and busy activity.
16. In and out: - Going in and coming out, often briefly.
17. Kith and kin: - Friends and relatives.
18. Loud and clear: - Clearly audible or easily understood.
19. Odds and ends: - Various small, miscellaneous items.
20. On and off: - Occasionally or intermittently.
21. Peace and quiet: - Tranquility and absence of noise or disturbance.
22. Pros and cons: - The advantages and disadvantages of a situation.
23. Rock and roll: - A style of popular music characterized by a strong rhythm.
24. Sick and tired: - Extremely annoyed or fed up.

25. Safe and sound: - Unharmed and in good condition.
26. To and fro: - Moving back and forth.
27. Ups and downs: - Fluctuations or changes in fortune.
28. Wear and tear: - Damage or deterioration caused by regular use.
29. Wheel and deal: - Engage in shrewd or complex dealings or negotiations.
30. X and Y (placeholder for any unknown or variable elements): - Used in a generic sense when referring to unspecified things.
31. First and foremost: - Most importantly or as the primary consideration.
32. Fish and chips: - A popular British dish consisting of fried fish and potatoes.
33. Hit or miss: - Unpredictable; something that may succeed or fail.
34. Hook, line, and sinker: - Completely, without reservation; often used to describe being fooled.
35. Ins and outs: - The detailed or complex aspects of a situation.
36. Jekyll and Hyde: - A person with a dual personality, often one good and one evil.
37. Jumping Jehoshaphat: - An exclamation of surprise or astonishment.
38. Knife and fork: - Utensils used for eating.
39. Ladies and gentlemen: - Polite and formal way of addressing a group.
40. Lock, stock, and barrel: - Everything, the whole thing.
41. Movers and shakers: - Influential and powerful people who initiate change.
42. Needle in a haystack: - Something extremely difficult to find.
43. Out and about: - Moving around in various places; not at home.
44. Peace and love: - An expression of goodwill and harmony.
45. Quid pro quo: - Something given or received in exchange for something else.
46. Rise and shine: - Wake up and be active or alert.
47. Salt and pepper: - Basic seasoning for food; also used to describe a mix of different things.
48. Sick as a dog: - Very sick or unwell.
49. Smoke and mirrors: - Deceptive tactics or illusions.
50. Spick and span: - Clean and tidy, with everything in order.
51. Stars and stripes: - The flag of the United States.
52. Time and again: - Repeatedly, on numerous occasions.
53. Tit for tat: - Retaliation or equivalent retaliation.

54. Touch and go: - Uncertain and risky; a situation with potential danger.
55. Trial and error: - Figuring out a solution by trying different methods until one works.
56. Up and coming: - Rising in prominence or success.
57. Vim and vigor: - Energy and enthusiasm.
58. Wash and wear: - Clothing or fabric that is easy to care for and requires minimal ironing.
59. Wine and dine: - Entertain someone with food and drinks, typically in a fancy setting.
60. Yin and yang: - The Chinese philosophy of the interdependence of opposites, often representing balance.
61. Aches and pains: - Minor physical discomforts or ailments.
62. Above and beyond: - Surpassing expectations; exceeding what is required.
63. All or nothing: - The idea that something must be done completely or not at all.
64. Ants in your pants: - Restless or agitated, unable to sit still.
65. Bells and whistles: - Extra features or embellishments, often unnecessary.
66. Bend over backward: - To make a great effort to accommodate or please someone.
67. Birds and the bees: - A euphemistic way of explaining reproduction and sex.
68. Blow hot and cold: - To be inconsistent or unpredictable in behavior.
69. Bread and circuses: - Providing entertainment to distract attention from more serious matters.
70. Brick and mortar: - Traditional physical buildings, as opposed to online or virtual presence.
71. Chickens come home to roost: - Consequences catch up with someone; one reaps what one sows.
72. Cool as a cucumber: - Extremely calm and composed, especially in stressful situations.
73. Down to earth: - Practical, realistic, and unpretentious.
74. Every nook and cranny: - Every small or hidden place.
75. Flesh out: - To provide more details or information.
76. Give and take: - Mutual cooperation and compromise.
77. Hale and hearty: - Healthy and strong, especially in appearance.
78. Heads or tails: - A way of making a decision by flipping a coin.
79. High and mighty: - Arrogant or condescending behavior.
80. Horse and buggy: - Outdated or old-fashioned.
81. Hot and bothered:- Agitated or flustered, often due to heat or stress.
82. In and of itself:- Intrinsically, by itself, without considering anything else.

83. Jog your memory: - To help someone remember something.
84. Jump on the bandwagon: - To join others in doing something that has become fashionable or popular.
85. Last but not least: - The final item, person, or point, but not less important than the others.
86. Lay down the law: - To give authoritative instructions or rules.
87. Mum's the word: - Keep quiet; don't reveal a secret.
88. Nip it in the bud: - To stop a problem at an early stage before it becomes more serious.
89. Null and void: - Without legal force or effect.
90. On and on: - Continuing for a long time without stopping.
91. Out of the woods: - Free from danger or difficulty.
92. Pins and needles: - A tingling sensation, often from sitting in an awkward position.
93. Pot calling the kettle black: - Accusing someone of a fault one possesses.
94. Rack and ruin: - The state of decay or destruction.
95. Raining cats and dogs: - Raining heavily.
96. Rob Peter to pay Paul: - To take from one source to pay another, resulting in a balancing act.
97. Safe and secure: - Well-protected and free from harm.
98. Scrape the bottom of the barrel: - To use the least desirable or best available options.
99. Spur of the moment: - Done without much thought; impulsively.
100. Through thick and thin: - Supporting someone in both good and bad times.