

Friends prepare you for your English essay

Scene: Monica and Rachel's apartment. The six friends—Monica, Rachel, Ross, Chandler, Joey, and Phoebe—are gathered in the living room.

Monica: Hey guys, I was thinking we could help Joey prepare for his English final.

Joey: Yeah, I could use some help.

Ross: Sure, Joey. What's the format of the exam?

Joey: It's a written essay.

Rachel: Do you have any idea what topic you'll choose?

Joey: Not really.

Monica: It's important to select a topic that interests you and that you can write about confidently.

Ross: Once you have a topic, structure your essay with an introduction, body paragraphs, and a conclusion.

Chandler: And make sure your introduction grabs the reader's attention.

Phoebe: Yeah, like a catchy song!

Joey: Okay, I think I got it.

Monica: In the body paragraphs, develop your ideas clearly and support them with examples.

Ross: And in the conclusion, summarize your main points and restate your thesis in a new way.

Chandler: Also, avoid using overly complex words just to sound smart.

Phoebe: Yeah, be yourself in your writing.

Joey: Got it.

Monica: After you finish writing, take the time to revise and proofread your essay.

Ross: Look for any grammatical errors or awkward sentences.

Chandler: And make sure your essay flows logically from one point to the next.

Phoebe: Like a beautiful melody!

Joey: Thanks, guys. I feel more prepared now.

Monica: Remember, practice makes perfect. Write a few practice essays before the exam.

Ross: And don't hesitate to ask us for feedback.

Chandler: Yeah, we're here to help.

Phoebe: Good luck, Joey!

Joey: Thanks, everyone.

[The friends continue discussing and offering Joey more tips as the scene fades out.]