

Slang can definitely add flavor and authenticity to casual writing!

1. A brokie

- Definition: A person with very little money or someone who is broke.
 - Usage Advice: Often used in a lighthearted or self-deprecating way, but be mindful of context to avoid sounding judgmental. Best suited for informal contexts, social media, or when describing a relatable situation.
 - Sample Sentence: Ever since my last splurge on concert tickets, I've been living like a total brokie.
-

2. Ghosted

- Definition: To suddenly cut off all communication with someone without explanation.
 - Usage Advice: Often used in the context of dating or friendships. Suitable for informal texts, social media posts, or dialogues.
 - Sample Sentence: I thought we had a great time on our date, but he totally ghosted me afterward.
-

3. Flex

- Definition: To show off or brag, especially about something impressive.
 - Usage Advice: Can be positive or negative, depending on context. Works well in social media captions, casual conversations, or lighthearted critiques.
 - Sample Sentence: Posting that new car on Instagram was definitely a flex.
-

4. Lowkey

- Definition: Slightly or subtly, often used to downplay something.
 - Usage Advice: Adds a casual and relatable tone. Can be used to express a feeling without fully committing to it.
 - Sample Sentence: I'm lowkey excited about the party, but I'm also nervous about meeting new people.
-

5. Snack

- Definition: An attractive person (usually used playfully).
 - Usage Advice: Used mainly in casual conversations or on social media when complimenting someone's appearance.
 - Sample Sentence: Did you see Emma at the party last night? She was looking like a total snack.
-

6. Extra

- Definition: Over-the-top, dramatic, or excessive.
 - Usage Advice: Often used to describe someone who is doing too much. It can be playful or slightly critical.
 - Sample Sentence: She planned an entire dance routine just for her entrance – it was a bit extra.
-

7. Tea

- Definition: Gossip or juicy news.
 - Usage Advice: Often used when sharing or asking for drama or interesting stories. Works well in dialogues and casual writing.
 - Sample Sentence: Spill the tea – what happened at the party after I left?
-

8. Salty

- Definition: Bitter, angry, or resentful, often over something trivial.
 - Usage Advice: Suitable for lighthearted teasing or describing minor annoyances.
 - Sample Sentence: She's still salty about losing the trivia contest last week.
-

9. Lit

- Definition: Exciting, amazing, or fun.
 - Usage Advice: Commonly used to describe parties, events, or experiences. Very informal and upbeat.
 - Sample Sentence: That concert was absolutely lit – the energy was insane!
-

10. No cap

- Definition: No lie; being honest or truthful.
 - Usage Advice: Often used to emphasize sincerity or to call out a lie. Fits well in social media or conversational contexts.
 - Sample Sentence: No cap, that was the best pizza I've ever had.
-

11. Vibe

- Definition: The atmosphere or mood of a place, person, or situation.
 - Usage Advice: Used to describe both positive and negative feelings. Can be used as a noun or verb.
 - Sample Sentence: The café had a chill vibe, perfect for hanging out with friends.
-

12. Simp

- Definition: Someone who does way too much for someone they like, often at the expense of their own self-respect.
 - Usage Advice: Be careful with this one; it can come off as judgmental. Works best in playful or ironic contexts.
 - Sample Sentence: He stayed up all night helping her with homework – man's a total simp.
-

13. Slaps

- Definition: Something that is exceptionally good, especially music.
 - Usage Advice: Used to praise songs, beats, or performances. Very casual and upbeat.
 - Sample Sentence: That new track by Dua Lipa slaps – it's been on repeat all day!
-

14. Drip

- Definition: Stylish or trendy outfit or fashion sense.
 - Usage Advice: Often used to compliment someone's appearance or fashion choices.
 - Sample Sentence: Check out his drip – those sneakers are fire!
-

15. Sus

- Definition: Suspicious or questionable.
 - Usage Advice: Popularized by gaming culture. Usually used to describe someone acting oddly or untrustworthy.
 - Sample Sentence: He showed up late and kept making excuses – kinda sus if you ask me.
-

16. Yeet

- Definition: To throw something with force or enthusiasm. Can also express excitement.
 - Usage Advice: Very informal and often used humorously.
 - Sample Sentence: He yeeted his backpack onto the couch after a long day at school.
-

17. Big mood

- Definition: An expression of strong relatability or agreement.
 - Usage Advice: Used to respond to something that resonates deeply, usually in a humorous or exaggerated way.
 - Sample Sentence: When she said she just wanted to nap for a week, I was like, big mood.
-

18. Bet

- Definition: An affirmative response, meaning “okay” or “I agree.”
 - Usage Advice: Casual, often used as a quick reply.
 - Sample Sentence: You down for pizza tonight? Bet.
-

19. FOMO

- Definition: Fear of Missing Out.
 - Usage Advice: Used to describe the feeling of missing a fun or important event.
 - Sample Sentence: I had major FOMO when I saw everyone’s beach photos while I was stuck at work.
-

20. Glow-up

- Definition: A transformation for the better, especially in appearance or lifestyle.
 - Usage Advice: Positive and encouraging, usually to highlight someone's progress.
 - Sample Sentence: Since college, she's had the ultimate glow-up – confident, stylish, and successful.
-

21. Woke

- Definition: Socially aware, especially regarding issues of justice and inequality.
 - Usage Advice: Originally positive, but can be used ironically or critically. Best for discussions about social issues.
 - Sample Sentence: Staying informed about climate change is part of being woke these days.
-

22. Clap back

- Definition: A quick, witty, or sharp response to criticism or insult.
 - Usage Advice: Often used to describe verbal comebacks, especially in online exchanges.
 - Sample Sentence: When they tried to drag her on Twitter, she clapped back with facts.
-

23. Throw shade

- Definition: To subtly or indirectly criticize or insult someone.
 - Usage Advice: Often used in gossip or casual commentary.
 - Sample Sentence: She didn't name names, but she definitely threw shade at her ex during the interview.
-

24. Savage

- Definition: Bold, unapologetic, or ruthless, often in a humorous context.
 - Usage Advice: Typically used to praise someone's fearless attitude or witty remark.
 - Sample Sentence: Her comeback was so savage, the whole group just lost it.
-

25. Stan

- Definition: An enthusiastic and devoted fan. (Can also be a verb: to strongly support someone or something.)
 - Usage Advice: Originally from Eminem's song "Stan." Generally positive, but can imply obsessive behavior.
 - Sample Sentence: I totally stan that band – I've been to every concert this year.
-

26. Spill the beans

- Definition: To reveal a secret or share information.
 - Usage Advice: Playful and lighthearted, used when urging someone to tell a story.
 - Sample Sentence: Come on, spill the beans – what happened at the meeting?
-

27. Ship

- Definition: To support a romantic relationship between two people (real or fictional).
 - Usage Advice: Common in fandoms and online communities.
 - Sample Sentence: I totally ship those two – they're perfect for each other!
-

28. Cancelled

- Definition: Publicly boycotted or rejected due to controversial actions or statements.
 - Usage Advice: Often used in social media contexts when discussing celebrities or public figures.
 - Sample Sentence: After his rude comments surfaced, people were quick to say he was cancelled.
-

29. Thirst trap

- Definition: A photo or post intended to attract attention and admiration, usually in a flirty or provocative way.
 - Usage Advice: Mostly used in social media contexts, often humorously.
 - Sample Sentence: She posted a beach pic that was definitely a thirst trap.
-

30. Stan Twitter

- Definition: A section of Twitter where devoted fans discuss, defend, and celebrate their favorite celebrities or fandoms.
 - Usage Advice: Refers specifically to passionate online fan communities.
 - Sample Sentence: Stan Twitter went wild after the new album dropped.
-

31. Bae

- Definition: A term of endearment, short for “baby” or “before anyone else.”
 - Usage Advice: Used to refer to a romantic partner or someone you’re very fond of.
 - Sample Sentence: Spending the weekend with my bae – can’t wait!
-

32. Roast

- Definition: To mock or criticize someone, usually in a humorous way.
 - Usage Advice: Can be playful among friends or harsh if done mean-spiritedly.
 - Sample Sentence: We spent the whole night roasting each other’s fashion choices.
-

33. Adulting

- Definition: The act of behaving like a responsible adult.
 - Usage Advice: Used humorously to describe mundane or challenging adult tasks.
 - Sample Sentence: Paying bills and doing laundry on the weekend – just adulting over here.
-

34. Glow-down

- Definition: A negative transformation, opposite of a glow-up.
 - Usage Advice: Usually lighthearted or ironic, but can sound judgmental if not used carefully.
 - Sample Sentence: That TV show really had a glow-down after the first season.
-

35. Main character energy

- Definition: The confident, self-assured vibe of someone who acts as if they're the protagonist of their own story.
 - Usage Advice: Positive and often used to compliment someone's presence or confidence.
 - Sample Sentence: She walked into the room with main character energy, and everyone noticed.
-

36. Hits different

- Definition: Feels uniquely impactful or special compared to other similar things.
 - Usage Advice: Used when something feels more intense, meaningful, or powerful.
 - Sample Sentence: Listening to that song on a rainy day just hits different.
-

37. Periodt

- Definition: Emphatic way to end a statement, signaling that there's no room for debate.
 - Usage Advice: Often used to emphasize conviction or finality.
 - Sample Sentence: She's the best singer in the game, periodt.
-

38. Mood

- Definition: A relatable situation, feeling, or statement.
 - Usage Advice: Used when someone's words or actions capture exactly how you feel.
 - Sample Sentence: That cat just lying around all day is such a mood.
-

39. Big yikes

- Definition: An exaggerated reaction to something cringeworthy or awkward.
 - Usage Advice: Use when something is especially embarrassing or problematic.
 - Sample Sentence: He tried to impress everyone and accidentally spilled his drink – big yikes.
-

40. Fit

- Definition: Short for "outfit," often referring to stylish or well-coordinated clothing.
- Usage Advice: Commonly used when complimenting someone's style.
- Sample Sentence: Your fit today is on point – love the jacket!

41. I'm dead

- Definition: An exaggerated way of saying something is extremely funny.
 - Usage Advice: Commonly used online or in text to express laughter.
 - Sample Sentence: Her impression of the teacher was so good – I'm dead!
-

42. Swerve

- Definition: To avoid or dismiss someone or something.
 - Usage Advice: Often used when someone is dodging drama or avoiding a situation.
 - Sample Sentence: He tried to start a fight, but I just swerved and walked away.
-

43. Snack attack

- Definition: A sudden craving or urge to eat snacks.
 - Usage Advice: Lighthearted and playful, often used to joke about late-night cravings.
 - Sample Sentence: Had a major snack attack last night – demolished a whole bag of chips.
-

44. Lowkey savage

- Definition: Subtly or unexpectedly ruthless or bold.
 - Usage Advice: A compliment when someone delivers a sharp or witty comment without much effort.
 - Sample Sentence: She just corrected his grammar mid-argument – lowkey savage.
-

45. Glow

- Definition: Radiant, confident appearance, often due to happiness or self-care.
 - Usage Advice: Positive and encouraging, typically about someone's look or mood.
 - Sample Sentence: She's been so happy lately – her glow is unreal.
-

46. Throw hands

- Definition: To fight or get physically aggressive.
- Usage Advice: Usually used humorously or metaphorically to describe being ready to confront someone.
- Sample Sentence: If he keeps talking smack, I might just throw hands.

47. Real one

- Definition: A loyal, genuine, and trustworthy person.
 - Usage Advice: A high compliment, used to recognize someone's loyalty or support.
 - Sample Sentence: Thanks for having my back when no one else did – you're a real one.
-

48. Shook

- Definition: Extremely surprised or shocked.
 - Usage Advice: Often used when something unexpected happens.
 - Sample Sentence: I was shook when I saw the plot twist at the end of the movie.
-

49. Living rent-free

- Definition: When someone or something occupies your thoughts constantly without effort.
 - Usage Advice: Often used when an idea, person, or phrase keeps popping into your head.
 - Sample Sentence: That catchy song is living rent-free in my brain.
-

50. Cancel culture

- Definition: The practice of withdrawing support for public figures or companies after they do something considered offensive.
 - Usage Advice: Often discussed critically as being too reactionary or harsh.
 - Sample Sentence: He made one mistake, and suddenly cancel culture came for him.
-

51. Throwback

- Definition: A nostalgic reference to a past event or memory.
 - Usage Advice: Often used with old photos or memories shared online.
 - Sample Sentence: Throwback to summer vacations at the beach with the whole crew!
-

52. Living my best life

- Definition: Embracing happiness and making the most of life.
 - Usage Advice: Often used playfully, especially when enjoying oneself.
 - Sample Sentence: Sipping iced coffee on the balcony – just living my best life.
-

53. Deadass

- Definition: Completely serious or honest.
 - Usage Advice: Emphasizes sincerity, often in response to disbelief.
 - Sample Sentence: You're really moving to Tokyo? Deadass?
-

54. GOAT

- Definition: Greatest of All Time.
 - Usage Advice: Used to praise someone who excels exceptionally.
 - Sample Sentence: LeBron is the GOAT when it comes to basketball.
-

55. It slaps different

- Definition: Something that feels especially good or impactful in a specific context.
 - Usage Advice: Usually related to music, food, or experiences.
 - Sample Sentence: Pizza at 2 a.m. just slaps different.
-

56. Boujee

- Definition: Luxurious, fancy, or high-class, often in a way that's a bit over the top.
 - Usage Advice: Can be used positively or ironically. Often associated with lifestyle or fashion.
 - Sample Sentence: She showed up to the picnic in a designer dress – so boujee.
-

57. Flex

- Definition: To show off, especially something you're proud of.
 - Usage Advice: Can be used positively (impressive) or negatively (boastful).
 - Sample Sentence: Buying that car was such a flex – everyone noticed.
-

58. Tea

- Definition: Gossip or news. To “spill the tea” means to share the latest scoop.
 - Usage Advice: Lighthearted and conversational. Perfect for catching up with friends.
 - Sample Sentence: Come on, spill the tea – what happened at the party?
-

59. Caught in 4K

- Definition: Getting caught doing something wrong with undeniable proof (like a video or screenshot).
 - Usage Advice: Used humorously or critically, often online.
 - Sample Sentence: He was caught in 4K lying about where he was – his GPS betrayed him.
-

60. Gassed up

- Definition: Feeling confident, hyped, or excited.
 - Usage Advice: Can also mean being overly praised or flattered.
 - Sample Sentence: She was so gassed up after her performance – the crowd loved it!
-

61. On fleek

- Definition: Perfectly styled or groomed, looking flawless.
 - Usage Advice: Was hugely popular a few years ago, but now sounds a bit dated.
 - Sample Sentence: Her eyebrows were on fleek at the party.
-

62. Vibing

- Definition: Relaxing or enjoying the moment.
 - Usage Advice: Used when chilling out or getting along well with someone.
 - Sample Sentence: Just vibing on the porch with some good music.
-

63. Throwing shade

- Definition: Subtly criticizing or disrespecting someone.
 - Usage Advice: More subtle than openly insulting; often indirect.
 - Sample Sentence: She kept throwing shade at her ex without actually naming him.
-

64. Extra

- Definition: Over the top, dramatic, or unnecessarily excessive.
 - Usage Advice: Can be both a compliment or criticism, depending on the context.
 - Sample Sentence: She planned a whole surprise parade for his birthday – a little extra, but sweet.
-

65. Cringe

- Definition: Something awkward, embarrassing, or uncomfortable to watch.
 - Usage Advice: Widely used online to describe secondhand embarrassment.
 - Sample Sentence: His attempt at rapping in front of the whole school was pure cringe.
-

66. YOLO

- Definition: You Only Live Once – an expression used to justify taking risks or living spontaneously.
 - Usage Advice: Playful, often said before doing something bold.
 - Sample Sentence: I booked a spontaneous trip to Paris – YOLO!
-

67. Deadass serious

- Definition: Completely serious; not joking at all.
 - Usage Advice: Emphasizes sincerity, especially when the other person doubts you.
 - Sample Sentence: I'm deadass serious about starting my own business next year.
-

68. Bussin'

- Definition: Delicious or extremely good, especially when describing food.
 - Usage Advice: Very casual, mostly used by younger people.
 - Sample Sentence: This homemade lasagna is bussin'!
-

69. Snatched

- Definition: Looking good, especially in terms of fashion or appearance.
 - Usage Advice: Often used to compliment someone's outfit or overall look.
 - Sample Sentence: Her outfit was snatched – she looked like a total icon.
-

70. Lowkey

- Definition: Somewhat, secretly, or subtly.
 - Usage Advice: Can be used before an opinion or feeling that you're not openly expressing.
 - Sample Sentence: I'm lowkey excited about the concert, even though I didn't expect to be.
-

71. Highkey

- Definition: Very much so, openly, or obviously.
 - Usage Advice: The opposite of "lowkey." Emphasizes enthusiasm or intensity.
 - Sample Sentence: I'm highkey obsessed with this new series – can't stop watching!
-

72. Bread

- Definition: Money or wealth.
 - Usage Advice: Often used when talking about earning or having cash.
 - Sample Sentence: He's all about securing that bread – always hustling.
-

73. Hits different

- Definition: Feels unusually impactful or emotional compared to usual experiences.
 - Usage Advice: Typically used when something is more meaningful than expected.
 - Sample Sentence: Listening to that song while driving at night just hits different.
-

74. Suss out

- Definition: To figure out or investigate something.
 - Usage Advice: Casual but useful in both conversation and informal writing.
 - Sample Sentence: We need to suss out why the Wi-Fi keeps cutting off.
-

75. Cancelled plans energy

- Definition: The feeling of relief or happiness when plans are unexpectedly canceled.
 - Usage Advice: Very relatable, often used humorously.
 - Sample Sentence: When my meeting got postponed, I had that canceled plans energy – pure bliss.
-

76. No cap

- Definition: No lie; being completely honest.
 - Usage Advice: Often used to emphasize sincerity.
 - Sample Sentence: That pizza place is the best in town, no cap.
-

77. Stan

- Definition: To be an enthusiastic and dedicated fan of someone or something.
 - Usage Advice: Can also be a noun (a devoted fan).
 - Sample Sentence: I totally stan that band – their music is amazing!
-

78. Bet

- Definition: Used to confirm, agree, or accept a challenge.
 - Usage Advice: Can also mean “okay” or “sure” in a confident way.
 - Sample Sentence: You think you can beat me at basketball? Bet.
-

79. Simp

- Definition: A person who is overly attentive or submissive to someone they like, often to the point of losing self-respect.
 - Usage Advice: Usually used negatively, but sometimes playfully.
 - Sample Sentence: He’s always doing her homework for her – such a simp.
-

80. Big mood

- Definition: A very relatable feeling or situation.
 - Usage Advice: Used when someone’s actions or words perfectly reflect your own feelings.
 - Sample Sentence: Napping on a rainy afternoon – big mood.
-

81. Gucci

- Definition: Cool, good, or going well.
 - Usage Advice: Often used to say everything is fine or great.
 - Sample Sentence: I got the project done early, so I’m Gucci.
-

82. Dragged

- Definition: Being criticized or roasted, often publicly.
 - Usage Advice: Can also mean being called out for something wrong.
 - Sample Sentence: He got dragged on social media for his unpopular opinion.
-

83. Savage

- Definition: Bold, fierce, or impressively ruthless.
 - Usage Advice: Often a compliment when someone delivers a clever or witty comeback.
 - Sample Sentence: She made a savage comeback when he tried to insult her.
-

84. Slay

- Definition: To do something exceptionally well or impressively.
 - Usage Advice: Often used to compliment someone's appearance or performance.
 - Sample Sentence: You absolutely slayed that presentation!
-

85. Ship

- Definition: To support or hope for a romantic relationship between two people (real or fictional).
 - Usage Advice: Often used in fandoms when talking about favorite character pairings.
 - Sample Sentence: I totally ship those two – they'd be adorable together.
-

86. Thirst trap

- Definition: A provocative or attention-grabbing post, usually on social media.
 - Usage Advice: Used playfully, often when someone's showing off their looks.
 - Sample Sentence: Her beach photo was a total thirst trap – likes went through the roof.
-

87. Clap back

- Definition: A quick, witty, or sharp response to criticism or shade.
- Usage Advice: Often used when someone responds confidently to an insult.
- Sample Sentence: She had the perfect clap back when someone questioned her style.

88. Hits different

- Definition: Something that feels unusually impactful or emotional compared to similar things.
 - Usage Advice: Often used when something resonates on a deeper level.
 - Sample Sentence: That song hits different after a breakup.
-

89. Flex on

- Definition: To show off or demonstrate superiority, often in a boastful way.
 - Usage Advice: Can be both playful or slightly arrogant.
 - Sample Sentence: He's always flexing on us with his new gadgets.
-

90. Woke

- Definition: Socially and politically aware, especially regarding issues of justice and equality.
 - Usage Advice: Can be used positively or negatively, depending on the context.
 - Sample Sentence: She's really woke when it comes to environmental issues.
-

91. Spill the beans

- Definition: To reveal a secret or disclose information.
 - Usage Advice: Casual and playful when prompting someone to share.
 - Sample Sentence: Come on, spill the beans – what did she say about the party?
-

92. Hypebeast

- Definition: Someone who obsessively follows fashion trends, often for brand names.
 - Usage Advice: Sometimes used negatively to imply a lack of originality.
 - Sample Sentence: He's such a hypebeast – always rocking the latest limited-edition sneakers.
-

93. Ghosted

- Definition: Suddenly cutting off all communication with someone without explanation.
 - Usage Advice: Typically used when someone stops responding to texts or calls.
 - Sample Sentence: We went on a few dates, and then he just ghosted me.
-

94. Lit

- Definition: Exciting, awesome, or fun.
 - Usage Advice: Often used to describe parties, events, or experiences.
 - Sample Sentence: The concert last night was totally lit!
-

95. Clout chaser

- Definition: Someone who seeks attention or popularity, often in disingenuous ways.
 - Usage Advice: Can carry a negative connotation of being fame-hungry.
 - Sample Sentence: He's just hanging out with celebrities to be a clout chaser.
-

96. FOMO

- Definition: Fear Of Missing Out – anxiety over not being included in exciting activities.
 - Usage Advice: Often mentioned when making spontaneous plans.
 - Sample Sentence: I went to the party just because of FOMO.
-

97. Ghosting

- Definition: Disappearing from someone's life without explanation, especially in dating.
 - Usage Advice: Used when someone suddenly cuts off communication.
 - Sample Sentence: After chatting every day for a month, she just started ghosting me.
-

98. Plug

- Definition: Someone who can get you something, often exclusive or hard-to-find.
 - Usage Advice: Often related to tickets, fashion items, or other desirable things.
 - Sample Sentence: He's got a plug for concert tickets – always gets the best seats.
-

99. Vibe check

- Definition: An assessment of someone's mood or energy.
 - Usage Advice: Can be used jokingly or sincerely.
 - Sample Sentence: She walked in looking grumpy – total failed vibe check.
-

100. Breadwinner

- Definition: The person who earns the most money in a household.
 - Usage Advice: Often used positively when talking about supporting a family.
 - Sample Sentence: After her promotion, she became the main breadwinner in the family.
-